A Greeting from the President of the Church

Rev. James E. Wagner, D.D., LL.D., Th.D.

Once again this helpful and informative volume, the Year Book of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, is placed in your hands.

Dr. Wagner

At first glance it may look to you like a cross between a Sears Roebuck catalog, the yellow section of your phone book, and an income tax return, a compilation of dry-as-dust data with more than a third of its pages filled with statistical tables.

But it isn't.

When you have learned how to use this volume you will find that it not only describes in brief the complex organization of our denominational life, but actually tells the story of each of our almost 2,750 congregations as far as that story can be told in figures.

The story of your congregation is included.

I am going to try now to illustrate how you can ferret out the story of a congregation from the data in the Year Book.

Suppose that as an Evangelical and Reformed Church member living in the east I am planning to take a motor trip through the middle west, stopping off to visit some old friends who are now living in Pomeroy, Iowa. I will be there over Sunday and will surely wish to attend a service of worship and am curious as to whether there is an Evangelical and Reformed church in that town.

The Year Book will tell me. For, if I turn to the section which is listed in the Index as "Location of Churches," where the States are named in alphabetical order, I learn three facts: (1) there is an Evangelical and Reformed church in Pomeroy; (2) it is known as First Evangelical and Reformed Church; and (3) its pastor is the Rev. Harold L. Behle.

My curiosity is warming up about this church now, but I'm not sure which of our 34 synods it belongs to. Easiest way to find out is to turn to that part of the Year Book which is indexed as "Ministers, Register of," and there again in proper alphabetical order find Pastor Behle's name. The one-line entry tells me three things: (1) that he is a graduate of Eden Theological Seminary; (2) that he was ordained in 1945; and (3) that he and his church in Pomeroy, Iowa, belong to Nebraska Synod.

The trail is getting fresher now. I turn to that section of the Year Book listed in the Index as "Synods, Rosters of the" and again in alphabetical order find Nebraska Synod, and, behold, I learn that Pastor Behle is also Secretary of the Nebraska Synod. He must be a capable young man, I say!

But it's First Church, Pomeroy, Iowa, whose story I am most interested in ferreting out, and I'm now really just around the corner from a whole series of facts. For if I turn next to that section of more than a hundred pages which is indexed as "Statistics by Synods," I discover each synod included in its proper alphabetical order, and within each synod each of its congregations also in proper alphabetical order.

And at No. 16 in the Nebraska Synod tabulations I find the name of First Church, Pomeroy, Iowa, and there is a concise succession of salient facts about this congregation. It is located in a town of between 500 and 2500 population. I can tell how many members were received by confirmation, transfer, and renewal of profession of faith; how many were lost by death, by transfer, or by erasure from the roll; what the congregation's total communicant membership was on December 31, 1954, and its net gain or loss over the previous year.

I learn here how many infants were baptized in First Church, Pomeroy, during 1954, how many members communed at least once during the year, how large an enrollment there is in the Sunday School there and what the average attendance was; whether the congregation had any of its young people studying for full-time service in the Church; how much its Kingdom Service apportionment was for the year and whether it was paid in full; how much our Pomeroy people raised for World Service; what they gave for these and all other benevolences; how much they paid off on their debt if they had any debt; what they spent on the local congregational budget during the year; the estimated value of their parsonage and of all other congregational property.

Why, as you see, with the help of the Year Book you can write at least a 700-word article if not a book about this and every other of the almost 2,750 congregations in our beloved Church.

Ordinations

ORINATION is the rite by which the Church sets apart for the sacred office of the Christian ministry one whom it recognizes as having been called of God, who exhibits the mental, moral and spiritual qualifications of his calling, and who has completed a satisfactory preparation for and is called by the Church to the exercise of the duties and responsibilities of the ministry. This rite does not raise him to a unique spiritual estate, as though it conferred upon him gifts of the Spirit which he did not before possess or which those not ordained cannot possess; but it does entrust him with the privileges and responsibilities of a spiritual office to which God has called him."

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered.

The corporate titles of our Church Boards, agencies and institutions may be found

Names and Stations of Missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

THE following list contains the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in the areas where we are represented. Grateful acknowledgment is made of the willing cooperation of the executives and other representatives of the Board of International Missions at St. Louis and Philadelphia in presenting this complete personnel. In order that the list of stations and missionaries might be shown to better advantage an additional page has been allotted in the YEAR BOOK.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as of the appointees have been included. The names in italics after the post offices of the addresses of lay ministers represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses.

Students for the Ministry

A Year Book innovation this year is the inclusion of the names of all the ministerial students who are at present enrolled in our own or other accredited institutions of learning. The requirement is that the student for the ministry shall have the endorsement and approval of the Committee on Church and Ministry of the Synod of which he is a member. We are deeply indebted to the presidents of the synods for their ready cooperation in furnishing us with these lists. Any omissions are entirely inadvertent and should be reported to the synod presidents at once. The lists by synods follow.

BENSENVILLE HOME SOCIETY

A continuing program of service to children in foster homes.

AN EXPANDING PROGRAM OF CARE FOR THE AGED

A beautiful new unit for nursing care has been opened on the Bensenville campus. Homelike units now in operation in Freeport and Peotone allow residents from those areas to enjoy familiar community relationships. The continuing loyalty and support of our friends is necessary to insure progressive service to our aged family.

Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts will enrich the lives of needy older people and children . . . by supporting such an agency as the Bensenville Home Society, you will be making a great contribution to Christian welfare. Memorials to departed loved ones will help us immeasurably in this great undertaking.

ADVERTISEMENTS: BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS

THE WORK of the Emmaus personnel may be said to be a venture in Christian living with the mentally deficient, the chronic epileptic and the mental seniles. The Emmaus Homes are little communities adapted to the needs of those who have never had or who have lost the powers or abilities which are the heritage of the average person. Personnel for these locations is recruited primarily from the churches. Send your gifts or offer yourself. There is a dire need of attendants, men and women. Write to the superintendents for information regarding positions.

A PRAYER

FOR THOSE BEREAVED

Father of love and mercy, the consolation of the sorrowful and the support of the weary, look down in tender love and pity upon those who have been bereft of loved ones. While they mourn, may they not murmur; but remembering all Thy mercies, Thy promises and Thy love in Christ, may resign themselves meekly into Thy hands, to be taught of Thee. Fill whatever feeling of loneliness they may have with a sense of Thy loving, abiding presence, that they may cleave more closely to Thee, who bringest life out of death, and who canst turn their grief into eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

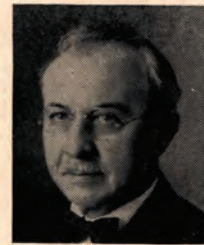

FOR GOD'S SUPPORT

*O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life
Until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes
And the busy world is hushed,
And the fever of life is over,
And our work is done.
Then of Thy great mercy grant us a safe lodging,
And a holy rest
And peace at last.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

The Commissioned Worker

THE Administrative Committee at its meeting on June 15, 1954 took the following action:—"The Status of Commissioned Workers was referred to the Theological Committee and the Commission on Church and Ministry for consideration preliminary to future action by the Committee on Constitutional Matters and the General Council."

Following precedent, the names of ordained ministers have not been included in the list.

Because of the incomplete and otherwise unreliable lists of personnel that are available and because of certain other conditions it was deemed advisable simply to present an alphabetical list of workers who it seems at one time or another were set apart as Commissioned Workers. The editor of the YEAR BOOK will be happy to place at the disposal of the above named groups any data or information that is available and that might serve some purpose in their study.

The list of names on file is as follows:—

Register of Ministers

As of September 1, 1955

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible, all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the detailed location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any error immediately to Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

1954 STATISTICS OF CONGREGATIONS

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1954, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

These congregational statistics went to press early in July. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in an area unit with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, between 500 and 2,500; F, under 500, and probably in the open country.

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

HEREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarters addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This information has been secured direct from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Boards and institutions listed.

A church should never "beg" for funds . . . never!

This is the frank and considered opinion of the world's leading specialists in church fund-raising

THE spiritual advance that followers of Christ all over the world hope and pray for cannot come in fullest measure until it gets a new kind of support by the laity. It cannot come without a revolution in our very attitude toward Christian giving.

The concept is not "new." It is as old as Christianity itself. It was given to the world in the Sermon on the Mount.

It is the concept of "the need of the giver to give" . . . that Christian giving is not based on "how much the church needs" but, rather, on "how much a member needs to give."

Time and again in our work we have seen this great Christian concept almost miraculously revitalize the spiritual and financial life of a church. Time after time we have seen the "unexpected" come to pass—a church, heavily in debt, made free; a congregation, somnolent and dying, awakened to new life; an "impossible" building-fund requirement met and surpassed; "fringe" members brought back to active participation.

But we cannot be astonished that these things happen. The words of Our Lord Himself guarantee that they will. Does He not tell us, if the text may be paraphrased, that our interests will follow our dollars?

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."—MATTHEW 6:21.

Our organization is the largest of its kind in the world. We help churches solve their financial problems by creative fund-raising, not by begging. This year we will advise over 6,000 churches regarding their financial programs and fund-raising problems, entirely without obligation. We will also direct more than 1,500 fund-raising canvasses—many for annual budgets only, others for capital needs. In every one of them, Christ's own concept of giving will be the Way.

TOO GOOD TO BE CHEAP

There are some things so cheap, a good man cannot afford to buy them. Money is spent for that which is not bread, and labor is expended for that which fails to satisfy. No matter how small the investment, it turns out to be a total loss. A good buy is one that does not spell good-bye to the seller.

Presbyterian Ministers' Fund claims that it gives greater value for the money invested than any other company. That such a claim has been proven may be seen in the number of men and women whose lot has been made easier by the Fund's Ministry.

Undesirability can become a heavy liability in an insurance contract. Avoid regret by writing to:

"Modern Craftsmanship of An

When You Consider Fund-Raising Counsel For Your Church You Want To Be Sure . . .

- . . . that the goal which you accept is reasonable and can be achieved, yet is not understated merely to benefit your professional counsel.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES surveys and analyses — prepared without cost or obligation BEFORE your church decides upon a campaign — determine accurately for you (and, as important, for us) the reasonable goal for your congregation. Yet, LAWSON ASSOCIATES consistently achieves higher goals, and at lower cost to you.

- . . . that any effort undertaken in your church will be on a spiritual plane commensurate with the ultimate goal of your church, and not alone for immediate monetary benefits.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES campaigns are planned and directed with proper regard to this fact: while the immediate goal of a funds appeal is monetary and of the moment, there are long-range goals which your church has set and which a properly directed funds appeal should further.

- . . . that the firm with which you deal is worthy of your trust.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES has a long-standing reputation for excellence which is more precious than any short-lived burst of notoriety. This reputation comes from the trust which past clients have placed in us in more than 2,300 churches, and because of our adherence to the items mentioned above. It will continue so long as we continue and improve upon our service to the churches of this and other nations.

Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company

BURLINGTON IOWA

The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company was chartered under the insurance laws of the state of Iowa in March, 1889, and since its organization has enjoyed a steady and consistent growth and faithful service to its policyholders. It is a non-assessable Mutual Insurance Company. As such, it has no stockholders.

Your company has stood the test for 66 years. This is shown by its financial statement which reveals a surplus as regards policyholders in the amount of $412,732.00 set aside as an additional safety fund for the protection of its policyholders. It is under strict inspection of the Iowa State Insurance Department. An "A" plus (Excellent) rating has been given us by the Policyholders Reporting firm.

The Company is controlled and operated by Evangelical and Reformed laymen, who at all times have the welfare of their policyholders in mind and are continuously striving to give Protection, Safety, Service and Savings to its policyholders.

PROTECTION. It is and always has been our motto to help a brother when misfortune strikes. Also to provide additional protection all amounts over and above our retention are reinsured in good and reliable companies.

SAFETY. By writing the insurance within the boundaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church the risks are so widely scattered that it is almost an impossibility to have a catastrophe loss, which has been proven many times during the years.

SERVICE. Giving our insured the best for their money at a reasonable cost and mailing out loss drafts on the day the Proof of Loss arrives at the Home Office has been and will be our ambition in the future.

SAVINGS. Our policyholders have saved thousands of dollars over the years and will continue to do so in the future.
